Hi Roena,
I have been thinking about you and wondering how you are doing.
Tell me how your trip turned out in Pennsylvania and points East of Ohio.
I have been looking at the copy of the Roots and Shoots by Pam Lash for the Williams County Genealogical Society. The one that was written in July 1983 I think as that date is on the copy of the article. The article is about Enos Partee and several things do not match with my information. I am not saying I am perfect, as I definitely am not, but I do find numerous errors in it. I am not sure it is worth trying to contact someone about it as it has been so long since it was written. The person who wrote it may not even be alive anymore.

The things I found wrong in it are:
1. Enos Partee was teh son of George and Rachel Hague not his first wife Elizabeth. My information shows that Elizabeth died in Kentucky in 1792 and he married Rachel in 1793. Enos was born in 1794 according to my information. I got most of it from Robert Ullrich who lives in Kentucky and has done a lot of the Partee/Purtee research over the years.
2. I have George Partee being born in the area of present day Washington DC in 1756 approx. James Partee/Purtee was his father and he married Deborah Hall. Deborah and James Partee are listed in John Hall's will and she got a sixpence/like a $1 today. I guess John Hall did not like James Partee. In 1790 John Partee/Purtee is listed in Washington Co Pennsylvania and then in 1790 George Pettey and James Pettey are listed in Bourbon County Kentucky Tax list . The Purtee/Partee/Porter etc are listed in Bourbon Co Kentucky in 1791, 1792, 1793, 1795,1796, 1797, 1798, 1799 and then 1800 and 1802. Our George moved to Peebles Ohio area in 1803 and lived there until he died in 1808.

I do have the list and the names and their possessions, so if you do not have it and would like a list I will send it to you.
I think that is enough for now. Let me know what you think, if anything should be done.
Love Twila

George Partee (Purtee) served with Captain Joseph Mitchell's Company of northern Virginia militia from Frederick County in Dunmore's War in 1774. He lived in Monongahela County, VA (now West Virginia), in the late 1770s. He married (an American Indian/ not proven) "Elizabeth" about 1783 and moved to Cumberland Township of Washington County, PA, where he lived from 1784 to 1790. George Purtee and his family moved to Bourbon County, KY, in 1790, where they lived on land south of Millersburg on Hinkston Creek.

George Partee (Purtee) served with Captain Joseph Colvin's Company of Kentucky militia from Bourbon County in General "Mad Anthony" Wayne's campaign of 1794. ENOS PARTEE

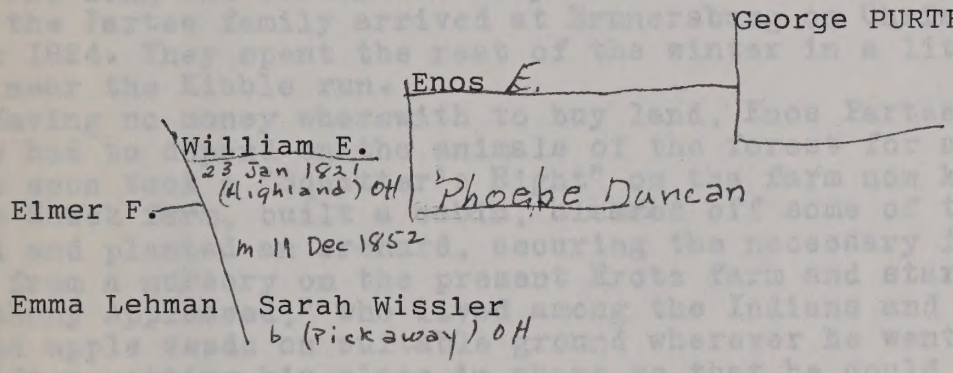
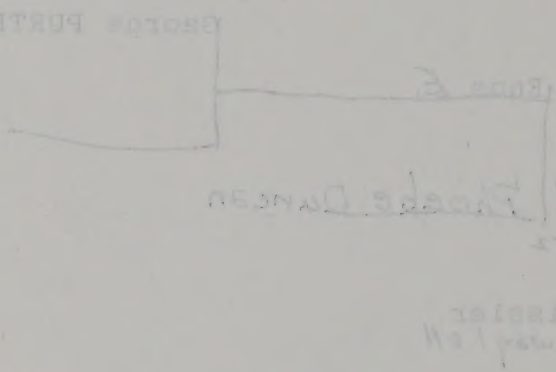
Enos Partee came from (Highland) OH on 24 Dec. 1825. He was the second white family to take up residence in Tiffin Twp. His son William E. was born in Highland County, OH on 23 Jan. 1821 and was only 4 years old when his parents removed to the wilds of North Western Ohio. and began housekeeping in Tiffin Twp. where they remained until 1882 when they moved to the city of Defiance.





History of Grandfather Enos Partee.

Grandfather Enos partee was born in West Virginia June 2, I794. When quite young he came with his parents to Adams County Ohio, where he spent his younger days, married and had four children (Hester Ann, George H., William E. and James); before he decided in I824 to locate in the wilds of what was then known as Williams County; whither several of his cousins had gone before him.

Shouldering his trusty rifle, he set out for the Maumee valley country. Arriving here without means, he rented a piece of ground from Mr. Robert Kepler on the Maumee river to raise a crop of corn. Between times he made a living shooting and trapping game which abounded in the dense forest at that time, and the pelts brought him a little cash money.

Having harvested his corn crop, he started back to Adams County to bring his family, which during his absence had been increased by the birth of another son (Enos M.) to the new home. The long and burdensome trip was made in an ox wagon in which the Partee family arrived at Brunersburg on Christmas day in I824. They spent the rest of the winter in a little cabin near the Kibble run.

Having no money wherewith to buy land, Enos Partee and family had to depend on the animals of the forest for a living but he soon took a "Squatter's Right" on the farm now known as the Houck farm, built a cabin, cleared off some of the ground and planted an orchard, securing the necessary fruit trees from a nursery on the present Krotz farm and started by "Johnny Appleseed," who lived among the Indians and planted apple seeds on suitable ground wherever he went.

After getting his place in shape so that he could properly house and shelter his family, he began to accumulate some money out of the wood to enter the land at goverment prices which had to be paid in cash. But before he had sufficient funds to accomplish this, another man stepped in and entered the land from under him and never paid him one cent for all the work he had done on the place.

At about that time a man named Ephraim Douty settled in Tiffin township on the farm now owned by T.J.Tittle. Mr Douty's family at that time was the only white family living in Tiffin township and being anxious for company, he persuaded Grandfather Enos Partee to take a lease of four acres of land on his farm until he could make another start.

He went there, put up a cabin and again found himself dependent upon the animals of the forest to earn the price of a farm. It was hard and a slow task, but game such as bear, deer, wolves, otter, raccoon and mink were quite plentiful. By hard work and experiecing all the trials and tribulations of pioneer life, he managed to save enough from his game and pelt money to enter II0 acres in Tiffin township, where his grandson Elmer now lives.

While living on the Douty farm, his second daughter, Lovina M. Partee, was born. She was the first white child to come into the world in Tiffin township. At that time there were three Indians to every white man in this section. In due time three more children (Phebe, John E. and Sarah) were born to Grandfather Partee. With a wife and nine children to support he began to realize what hard times meant, but he never faltered or became negeligent or unmindful of his duties.

For the first five years all the wheat they raised was "sick" and could not be used, so the family had to depend on corn for their bread. There were no roads, only trails and they were few and far between.

The nearest mill was at Perrysburg on the Maumee river near Toledo. The river was navigable then, there being no dams to negotiate. The corn was loaded into canoes and then taken to Perrysburg to be ground into meal or flour. Often the trip to Perrysburg and return would require more than a weeks time.

One of the greatest difficulties encountered in raising a family at that time was providing the necessary clothing for the children. Part of the time their raiment consisted of furs. Later on, when some of the land had been cleared, a few head of sheep were secured. Now, as Grandmother Partee understood spinning yarn and weaving cloth, they were able to make their own cloth and warm and comfortable garments. Style was, of course a secondary consideration.

Wild bees were thick in that section in those years. They were much sought after for their honey. Grandfather Partee at one time sold $60. worth of honey, enough to buy a good horse.

Settlers were so few for years that there was no opportunity to give the children a proper education.

As the Partee boys and girls grew up they naturally married off. Hester Ann married Henry Brown; George married a woman whose name I do not recall and as his second wife Ann Gurell; William E. married Sarah Wisler; James married Elizabeth Benner; Lovina married William Rath and at the time of her death left seven children; Phebe married Wellington Anson; John married Sarah Ingle and Sarah married Franklin Winans.

Grandfather Partee married a second time, his second wife was Catherine Lutz. She was a very good, religious old lady. It may be said that Enos Partee, too, was a faithful Christian and every honest man found a welcome in his home. What the number of children and grandchildren is, I am unable to say. But all his children have gone on to the life beyond, unless it be Enos M. concerning whose later life I have no information.

Grandfather Partee in the old days reaped an abundant harvest from the toil of his earlier days for he had a comfortable living and had added 80 acres to his original farm. He departed this life April 5, 1876 at the ripe old age of 81 years, 10 months and 3 days.

Williams County Genealogical Society

July 1983

A special summer event is being planned for those who are hooked on family research. The Williams County Genealogical Society will host a Family History Fair to be held Saturday, Aug. 20, at the Wesley United Methodist Church in Bryan from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The purpose of the fair, which is free to the public, is to promote interest in family history. Displays will be set up and speakers will discuss various aspects of such research. Anyone with an interest is welcome to set up a display or to submit a poster with surnames of research For further details, contact Jo Ellen Culbertson, 636-5464.

The next meeting of the W.C.G.S. will be 7:30 p.m., Monday, July 11, at the Citizens National Bank in Bryan. (Please note change of meeting place). Those wishing to attend should enter by the High Street entrance and proceed to the downstairs meeting room. This will be a work session to index a future publication and to make posters for the Family History Fair. The public is always welcome to attend society meetings. At this meeting those who have purchased an Atlas reprint are asked to pick up their copy of the 1894 Montpelier map which should be inserted in the Atlas.

This month's early Williams County Pioneer sketch concerns the father of the first white child born in Tiffin Township of what was then known as Williams County and is presently included in Defiance County. At this time there were approximately three Indians to every white male in that section.

Enos Partee, son of George and Elizabeth Partee, Sr., was born June 2, 1794 in West Virginia. He died April 5,1876, at the age of 81 years, 10 months, and 3 days in Defiance County, Ohio, and was buried in the McCauley Cemetery of that county. He first married Phebe Duncan, April 18, 1816, in Adams County, Ohio. Phebe was born 1793 in Virginia; she died June 10, 1855 in Defiance County.

By tradition George Partee, a farmer and wine maker,, served in the Revolutionary War, but to date this has not been proven. He was probably born in Pennsylvania and lived for a time in Virginia. He then went to Kentucky, residing in the Blue Licks area where Daniel Boone lost one of his sons in an Indian fight. He was buried in the family cemetery southwest of Peebles, Adam County, Ohio.

As a youngster, Enos traveled to Adams County with his family. In 1824 he decided to locate in the wilds of what was known as Williams County, where several of his cousins had settled.. Arriving without means, he rented a piece of ground from Robert Kepler on the Maumee River to raise corn. Between times he made a living shooting and trapping game. After harvesting his first corn crop, Enos started back to Adams County to prepare for his own family's relocation.

The Partee family arrived at Brunersburg on Christmas day in 1824 and spent the winter in a cabin near the Kibble Run. Having no money to buy land, Enos had to depend on the animals of the forest, but he soon took a "squatter's right" on a farm now known as the Houck farm. He built a cabin, cleared some of the land, and planted an orchard by securing the necessary fruit trees from the present Krotz farm. In his struggle to obtain the need cash to enter the land at government prices, he lost it to another who did have available money.

At this time Ephraim Douty had settled there with his family. Being anxious for company, Ephraim persuaded Enos to take a lease of four acres on his farm until he could make another start. Enos later managed to save enough from his game and pelt money to enter 110 acres in Tiffin Township. While residing at the Douty farm, Enos' second daughter, Lovina, was born.

For the first five years all the wheat they raised was "sick" and could not be used. The family had to depend on corn for bread. There were no roads then and the nearest mill was at Perrysburg on the Maumee River which then was navigable. They loaded the corn into canoes and took it to Perrysburg to be ground into meal or flour. Such a trip would require more than several weeks at a time.

Enos and Phebe Partee were the parents of the following nine children of whom the four youngest were born in Tiffin Township: (1) Hester Ann, born June 2, 1817, died Dec. 10, 1879; (2) George W., born 1821, married Ann Gurwell; (3) William E., born 1821, died 1894, married Sarah Wisler; (4) James, born 1822, married Elezabeth Benner; (5) Enos M., born 1824; (6) Lovina M., born 1825, married William Rath; (7) Phoebe, born 1829, married Wellington Anson; (8) John Enos, born June 13, 1831, died June 15, 1905, married May 18,1852, Sarah Ingle, married March 17, 1892, Margaret Troxel; and (9) Sarah, born 1834, married Franklin Winans.

One of the greatest difficulties encountered in rearing a family at that time was providing the necessary clothing for the children. Their raiment consisted of furs. Later when they could afford a few head of sheep. Phebe spun yarn and wove cloth to make more comfortable garments.

In May 1856, the widower Enos married Catherine (Lutz) Jones. Catherine was born 1809 and died Feb. 22, 1878. Together they toiled to eventually add 80 acres to the original homestead. At one time Enos sold $60 worth of honey from wild bees to buy a good horse to help with the farming.

A pot-luck reunion of the descendants of Enos Partee is scheduled for July 10, 1983.

PURTEE FAMILY CEMETERY, Meigs Township, Adams Co., Ohio

This is located on the Carol Shoemaker farm on Measley Ridge Rd. close to the intersection of State Route 134 and 41. Mrs. Donald (Betty) Pazera gave the information in 1974. There were only 3 marked graves indicating that there were graves that didn't have markers. We visited the farm May 1975 however due to electric fences and cattle in the field we were advised not to go back to the cemetery, however, the resident assured us that grounds were in good shape and that she was sure the three markers were all that remain. If visiting the cemetery besure to blow your horn due to sign "Beware of dogs"

THE FALL OF VLADIVOSTOK

What a Jap in Bryan has to Say.
—A Reply by Telegram from Tokio.

Prince Rokasa Kesuga, who has been in this country for the past three months, presumably for the purpose of floating an additional war loan for Japan, was in Bryan last week and talked freely on the conditions existing and emphasized his confidence in the speedy success of the Japanese in their war with Russia. He says Vladivostok is doomed and that quickly. The commanding positions now occupied by the Japanese surrounding Vladivostok only needs the addition of a heavy ordnance to make the capture complete. Last Wednesday the prince sent the following telegram to the Mikado.

Bryan, O., June 14. Uncle Sam is heartily in sympathy with Japan. Great country this. Wonderful business activity and big bargains. Yesterday I bought a suit of light weight clothing at Wolff's Jap sale for one fourth less than the usual price. Dirt cheap.

"KASUGA.

Today the prince received the following reply:

"Tokio, June 20.—Tell Wolff's to keep the sale going until we clean out the Russian Bear, which will be about July 1., and we will send orders for all the suits he has. We have heard of Wolff's store before as the best place in the United States to buy clothing.

Observes Memorial Day.

Fountain City Lodge, No. 314, I. O. O. F. observed memorial or decoration day services Sunday.

The lodge members met in the hall during the afternoon, and with solemn mein marched to the cemetery. There the graves of Fountain City's thirty four dead were strewn with flowers.

Beautiful ritualistic services were recited as these garlands were so tenderly placed on the last resting place of those who had met with the lodge in its transations when in life. These exercises were conducted by John S. Williams, acting noble grand, and Jerry Clay, acting chaplain.

The observance of this day has become of national importance, as its ritual is authorized by the sovereign grand lodge. Sunday was the first time that the rites were observed by the local Odd Fellows.

PARTEE

GRANDFATHER ENOS PARTEE

Grandfather Enos Partee was born in West Virginia, June 2, 1794. When quite young he came with his parents to Adams Co., Ohio, where he spent his younger days, married and had four children (Hester Ann, George H., William E. and James); before he decided in 1824 to locate in the wilds of what was then known as Williams Co.; whither several of his cousins had gone before him.

Shouldering his trusty rifle, he set out for the Maumee Valley Country. Arriving here without means, he rented a piece of ground from Mr. Robert Kepler on the Maumee River to raise a crop of corn. Between times, he made a living shooting and trapping game which abounded in the dense forest at that time, and the pelts brought him a little cash money.

Having harvested his corn crop, he started back to Adams Co. to bring his family, which during his absence had been increased by the birth of another son (Enos M.), to the new home. The long and burdensome trip was made in an ox wagon in which the Partee family arrived at Brunersburg on Christmas Day in 1824. They spent the rest of the winter in a little cabin near the Kibble Run.

Having no money wherewith to buy land, Enos Partee and family had to depend on the animals of the forest for a living, but he soon took a "squatter's right" on the farm now known as the Houck farm, built a cabin, cleared off some of the ground and planted an orchard, securing the necessary fruit trees from a nursery on the present Krotz Farm and started by "Johnny Appleseed," who lived among the Indians and planted apple seeds on suitable ground wherever he went.

After getting his place in shape so that he could properly house and shelter his family, he began to accumulate some money out of the wood to enter the land at government prices which had to be paid in cash. But before he had sufficient funds to accomplish this, another man stepped in and entered the land from under him and never paid him one cent for all the work he had done on the place.

At about that time, a man named Ephraim Douty settled in Tiffin Twp. on the farm now owned by T.J. Tittle. Mr. Douty's family at that time was the only white family living in Tiffin Twp. and being anxious for company, he persuaded Grandfather Enos Partee to take a lease of four acres of land on his farm until he could make another start.

He went there, put up a cabin and again found himself dependent upon the animals of the forest to earn the price of a farm. It was hard and a slow task, but game such as bear, deer, wolves, otter, raccoon and mink were quite plentiful. By hard work and experiencing all the trials and tribulations of pioneer life, he managed to save enough from his game and pelt money to enter 110 acres in Tiffin Twp., where his grandson Elmer now lives.

While living on the Douty farm, his second daughter, Lovina M. Partee, was born. She was the first white child to come into the world in Tiffin Twp. At that time there were three Indians to every white man in this section. In due time three more children (Phebe, John E. and Sarah) were born to them. With a wife and nine children to support Grandfather Partee began to realize what hard times meant, but he never faltered or became negligent or unmindful of his duties.

For the first five years, all the wheat they raised was "sick" and could not be used, so the family had to depend on corn for their bread. There were no roads, only trails and they were few and far between.

The nearest mill was at Perrysburg on the Maumee River near Toledo. The river was navigable then, there being no dams to negotiate. The corn was loaded into canoes and then taken to Perrysburg to be ground into meal or flour. Often the trip to Perrysburg and return would require more than a week's time.

One of the greatest difficulties encountered in raising a family at that time was providing the necessary clothing for the children. Part of the time their raiment consisted of furs. Later on, when some of the land had been cleared, a few head of sheep were secured. Now, as Grandmother Partee understood spinning yarn and weaving cloth, they were able to make their own cloth and warm and comfortable garments. Style was, of course, a secondary consideration.

Wild bees were thick in that section in those years. They were much sought after for their honey. Grandfather Partee at one time sold $60 worth of honey, enough to buy a good horse.

Settlers were so few for years that there was no opportunity to give the children a proper education.

As the Partee boys and girls grew up, they naturally married off. Hester Ann married Henry Brown; George married a woman whose name I do not recall and as his second wife, Ann Gurell; William E. married Sarah Wisler; James married Elizabeth Benner; Lovina married William Rath and at the time of her death, left seven children; Phebe married Wellington Anson; John married Sarah Ingle and Sarah married Franklin Winans.

Grandfather Partee married a second time, his second wife was Catherine Lutz. She was a very good, religious old lady. It may be said that Enos Partee, too, was a faithful Christian, and every honest man found a welcome in his home. What the number of children and grandchildren is, I am unable to say. But all his children have gone on the life beyond, unless it be Enos M. concerning whose later life I have no information.

Grandfather Partee in the old days reaped an abundant harvest from the toil of his earlier days for he had a comfortable living and had added 80 acres to his original farm. He departed this life April 5, 1876 at the ripe old age of 81 years, 10 months and 3 days. Written by F.D. Hockman, Stepson of William Rath, who was the husband of Lovina, second daughter of Enos Partee.

ENOS PARTEE DESCENDANTS

John Enos Partee was the eighth child born to Enos and Phoebe (Phebe Duncan) Partee. He was born in Defiance Co., June 13, 1831. He married Sarah (Ingle) May 18, 1852. To this union were born five children, four boys and one girl: Phoebe, Benton Orlando, Alexander B., Enos Franklin and my grandfather, Charles Wesley. John E. was mustered into the United States services, Oct. 30, 1862, Co. I, U.S.

John's second wife was Margaret Troxel whom he married March 17, 1892. Mr. Partee died June 15, 1905, and is buried in Fountain Grove Cemetery, Bryan.

Charles W. Partee, fifth child of John Enos and Sarah (Ingle), married Rennetta Louise (Lortz) February 25, 1891. To this union were born three sons and three daughters. Melvin M. was a career man in the United States services. Frank Raymond married Pearl May (Thomas) and had two boys and two girls. They lived in Hillsdale, Mich.

John W. married Ethel Sites and they had two daughters and one son. They lived in the Jackson, Michigan area. Mabel E. was married several times. Her last husband, Claude W. Dunn, was a retired Jackson City employee. He died April 8, 1977. She now lives in Hillsdale, Michigan. Ardythe A. married John (Jack) Beavers and lives in New Mexico. Carol Evelyn was last married to Forrest Stafford and they lived in Hillsdale, Mich.

Mrs. Louise Partee died in Jackson in 1945.

Following legal separation, Charles W. Partee married Gladys Christman and they had a son, Charles Wesley, Jr. He lives with his wife Phyllis in Rives Junction, Mich. Charles Partee, Sr. was a laborer for many years in Bryan. Before his death in 1929, he was running a hoist at the beet dump in Bryan and a load gave way, breaking his arm. He died two weeks later of heart complications.

Frank Raymond Partee, second son of Charles and R. Louise (Lortz) Partee, married Pearl May Thomas October 29, 1917. They had two sons and two daughters. Mr. Partee was born on the Williams-Defiance County line July 12, 1894, and was raised in Bryan. He learned bicycle repair as a boy and went to the Bryan Park School, for which he carried bricks, when it was built. The Bryan High School was built on the site after the Park School was razed. Frank attended school through the seventh grade and would probably have gone farther, but, he did not like the eighth grade teacher. He left school to learn the mechanic trade.

After their marriage, Frank and Pearl lived at 121 South Emmet Street, Bryan, where their first born, a son, Melvin Wesley, arrived Aug. 16, 1918. The threesome then moved to 815 E. Mulberry St. where they purchased the house for $25.00 down and $15.00 a month (including interest). He worked at the Van Camp Milk Plant (now Pet Milk) during World War I keeping 7 trucks on the road. He was their sole mechanic. His work was deemed so vital that it kept him from entering the service. A void he later filled, by going into the Civil Service as a mechanic during World War II.

Two more children were born at 815 E. Mulberry, Evelyn and Robert. Their fourth child, a daughter, Betty, was born south of Pioneer at the home of Mrs. Partee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Thomas.

Frank Partee left Van Camps to work on passenger cars in the Burt Ames Ford Garage on N. Lynn St. He served as mechanic and driver for the volunteer fire department in Bryan while he lived there.

Frank moved to Hillsdale in 1923 and continued in the garage and auto service until 1942. He then entered the United States Civil Service. His war years were spent at Wright-Patterson Field near Dayton, (Fairborn) Ohio; Alpena, Mich.; and Scott Field, Belleville, Illinois. He worked on

RAMSEY—Lydia L. Ramsey was born at Wooster, Ohio, January 1, 1833, and departed this life June 18, 1905, aged 72 years, 5 months and 17 days. Sept. 1st, 1850, she was united in marriage to Charles M. Fountain City Lodge, No. 314, I. O. O. F. observed memorial or decoration day services Sunday.

The lodge members met in the hall during the afternoon, and with solemn mein marched to the cemetery. There the graves of Fountain City's thirty-four dead were strewn with flowers.

Beautiful ritualistic services were recited as these garlands were so tenderly placed on the last resting place of those who had met with the lodge in its transations when in life. These exercises were conducted by John S. Williams, acting noble grand; and Jerry Clay, acting chaplain.

The observance of this day has become of national importance, as its ritual is authorized by the sovereign grand lodge. Sunday was the first time that the rites were observed by the local Odd Fellows.

We Pause to Explain.

We are again compelled to offer an apology this week for our tardiness in issuing the Democrat. The great family and moral newspaper was on the press, the machinery had begin to turn out the great editorial thoughts, when there was a lull. A cog, yes a half dozen of the doggoned things, had broken. The pressman didn't swear, but then he's had experience with a gasoline engine. So, dear reader, bear with us. We regret to keep such a good thing as the Democrat away from you even for a day, but with a wrecked machine it was impossible to give Williams county's "greatest" to an eager, reading public a minute earlier.

THE FALL OF VLADIVOSTOK

What a Jap in Bryan has to Say. —A Reply by Telegram From Tokio.

Prince Royasu Kesuga, who has been in this country for the past three months, presumably for the purpose of floating an additional war loan for Japan, was in Bryan last week and talked freely on the conditions existing and emphasized his confidence in the speedy success of the Japanese in their war with Russia. He says Vladivostok is doomed and that quickly. The commanding positions now occupied by the Japanese surrounding Vladivostok only needs the addition of a heavy ordnance to make the capture complete. Last Wednesday the prince sent the following telegram to the Mikado:

"Bryan, O., June 14.—Uncle Sam is heartily in sympathy with Japan. Great country this. Wonderful business activity and big bargains. Yesterday I bought a suit of light weight clothing at Wolff's June sale for one-fourth less than the usual price. Dirt cheap.

Today the prince received the following reply:

"Tokio, June 20.—Tell Wolff's to keep the sale going until we clean out the Russian Bear, which will be about July 1., and we will send orders for all the suits he has. We have heard of Wolff's store before as the best place in the United States to buy clothing."

Edon-Bryan Ball Game The Best of the Season.

The Bryan base ball team went down in defeat to Edon last Friday in a score of 2 to 1, and the small crowd in attendance witnessed one of the prettiest games in years. It was ladies' day, but the new bleachers did not resemble a millinery store

THE FALL OF VLADIVOSTOK

What a Jap in Bryan has to Say.—A Reply by Telegram From Tokio.

Prince Royasu Kesuga, who has been in this country for the past three months, presumably for the purpose of floating an additional war loan for Japan, was in Bryan last week and talked freely on the conditions existing and emphasized his confidence in the speedy success of the Japanese in their war with Russia. He says Vladivostok is doomed and that quickly. The commanding positions now occupied by the Japanese surrounding Vladivostok only needs the addition of a heavy ordnance to make the capture complete. Last Wednesday the prince sent the following telegram to the Mikado:

"Bryan, O., June 14.—Uncle Sam is heartily in sympathy with Japan. Great country this. Wonderful business activity and big bargains. Yesterday I bought a suit of light weight clothing at Wolff's June sale for one-fourth less than the usual price. Dirt cheap.

Today the prince received the following reply:

"Tokio, June 20.—Tell Wolff's to keep the sale going until we clean out the Russian Bear, which will be about July 1., and we will send orders for all the suits he has. We have heard of Wolff's store before as the best place in the United States to buy clothing."

Edon-Bryan Ball Game
The Best of the Season.

The Bryan base ball team went down in defeat to Edon last Friday in a score of 2 to 1, and the small crowd in attendance witnessed one of the prettiest games in years. It was ladies' day, but the new bleachers did not resemble a millinery store

Great Crop Damage.

Continental, O., June 17.—The farmers are now able to realize how much damage was done by the recent hard rains. Most of the onion and potato crops on the prairie east of here, are completely ruined, and they are the main crops of that section. The amount of corn washed out is enormous. One man saw his whole cornfield rooted out and washed down Powell's creek.

OBITUARY.

PARTEE—John E. Partee was born in Defiance county, Ohio, June 13th, 1831, and died June 15th, 1905, aged 74 years and 2 days. He was united in marriage to Sarah Ingle May 18th, 1852. The Grand Army made a conspicuous part in the large and smpathetic congregation. The services at the grave were under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, who used their beautiful burial ritual with deep solemnity.

A precious one from us has gone.
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in the home,
Which never can be filled.
God, in his wisdom, has recalled
The boon his love had given,
And though the body in slumber is held,
The soul is safe in heaven.

RAMSEY—Lydia L. Ramsey was born at Wooster, Ohio, January 1, 1833, and departed this life June 18, 1905, aged 72 years, 5 months and 17 days. Sept. 1st, 1850, she was united in marriage to Charles M. HISTORY OF FRANK RAYMOND PARTEE

As told to his daughter, Mrs. Betty (Partee) Michael by his wife Mrs. Pearl May (Thomas) Partee in March 1976. Frank was in Evergreen Manor Nursing Home in Montpelier, He was incapacitated by a severe stroke that affected his right side and speech.

* * * * * * * * *

Frank Raymond Partee was born July 12, 1894 near the Williams-Defiance County line and raised in Bryan, Ohio. He learned bicycle repair as a boy attended the Bryan Park School. As part time employment, he carried bricks that were used in the construction of the Park School. The Bryan High School was eventually built on the site of the Park School, after it was razed. Frank attended school through the seventh grade and would probably have gone farther, but, he did not like the eighth grade teacher. He left school to go to work learning the mechanic trade.

He married Pearl May Thomas October 29, 1917.

After his marriage to, Pearl, they lived at 121 South Emmet Street, Bryan, Ohio, where their first born, a son, Melvin Wesley, arrived August 16, 1918.

The threesome then moved to 815 E. Mulberry Street, where they purchased the house for $25.00 down and $15.00 a month, including interest. He worked at the Van Camp Milk Plant on East High (now Pet Milk) during World War I, keeping 7 trucks on the road. He was their sole mechanic. His work was deemed so vital that it kept him from going into the service. A void, he later filled by going into the Civil Service during World War II.

Two more children were born to them at 815 E. Mulberry Street, Evelyn May 2nd and Robert Franklin 3rd.

He left Van Camps to work on passenger cars in the Burt Ames Ford garage on North Lynn Street. (I believe it's now Bryan Automotive). He served as a mechanic and driver for the volunteer fire department in Bryan while he risided there.

Frank left the Ford garage in Bryan to move to Hillsdale in 1923 to work for J.I. Lorah in the Pinkham and Wright garage that was in the building that now houses the Montgomery Ward Store. There was a garage in Waldron that was owned (also) by P & W and they moved Frank and family to Waldron in 1924. He was to get the garage on a profitable base. Due to the Depression coming on, it did not make it and they moved him and his family back to Hillsda e after a year. Betty Jane, their fourth child, was born during this time at Pearl's parents (James and Grace Thomas) home 2 miles south of ioneer on State Route 15.

He continued to work for Mr. Lorah as chief mechanic until World War II started. In 1942, he took a Civil Service test at Romulus, Mich. passing with high grades to become an airplane mechanic. His war years were spent at Wright-Patterson Field, Dayton (Fairborn) Ohio; Alpena, Michigan; and, Scott Field, Belleville, Illinois. He worked on experimental radio planes and all kinds of fighter planes and the biggest one at that time, the B-49. He and his wife saw lots of country during this time.

April 5, 1945, Frank and Pearl returned to Hillsdale where they made their home until April 3, 1974, at which time, they had their mobile home destroyed by a tornado. They were in a mobile home park north of Hillsdale (Rileys) along with 27 other mobile home residents. After an 8 second storm, there were only 8 homes still standing. No One was killed in the court, but, many senior citizens were uprooted, including the Partees. They stayed with their son, Robert, for several days following the storm. They were both placed on tranquilizers, temporarily. Mrs. Partee fell while at her sons and broke the metitarsal bone in her right foot causing her to be hospitalized. While Mrs. Partee was in the hospital, Mr. Partee moved their belongings to Bryan, Ohio, April 13, 1974. July 26th they moved to 327 Empire Street, Montpelier to be nearer their daughter, Betty.

HISTORY OF PEARL MAY THOMAS PARTEE

Wife of Frank Raymond Partee (married October 29, 1917)
As told to her daughter, Mrs. Betty Jane (Partee) Michael

Pearl May Thomas was born December 11, 1898 at 5:30 p.m. on a Sunday, weighing 12 pounds. She was born in the same log cabin that her father had been born in. The day that she was born (being Sunday) the family had a get-together and it was like a reunion, to see the new baby. It started to snow and the log cabing needed chinked in some of the places between the logs and an umbrella was placed over the mother and new baby to protect them from the snow that was blowing in the cracks.

The Thomas family (James E, Grace Vada (Reppe), and older sister, Hazel Grace,) lived in Edgerton until Pearl was through the 1st grade. They lived with her great grandfather, Jesse W. Lake. After 1st grade Pearl was passed to the third grade by her teacher, Miss Darkis. Her father worked for the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad in Edgerton. He was a brakeman.

Gladys Iona Thomas was born near Montpelier, February 14, 1902.

A transfer resulted in their household goods being moved by the railroad to south Toledo in a freightcar. In Toledo, Pearl was returned to the 1st Grade, much to her disgust.

The Thomas family home, in Toledo, was remembered as quite nice. Also, the girls had to climb a ladder to a loft bedroom. The house was heated with a potbellied stove in the living room and an old fashioned cooking range (coal and wood) in the kitchen. The family walked to downtown Toledo to go to the German Zion Methodist Church. Only German was spoken by the minister, Reverend Rogatsky.

Pearl's cousin, David Thomas, son of Will Thomas, brought young Frank R. Partee to Toledo especially to see Pearl. He continued to come at different times to visit her for the next year. On one of his visits, a year later, he asked permission of her parents to take her to a movie and after arriving at the ticket office he looked over and there were her parents across the street. They were trying to be inconspicuous chaperons. The show they saw was one of Mutt Jeff and in the show they got married. One of the couples didn't get along (Mutt) and the other couple(Jeff) were lovey dovey and Frank's proposal, because of no privacy, to Pearl, was "pointing at the loving couple, that's the way we're going to be after we get married."

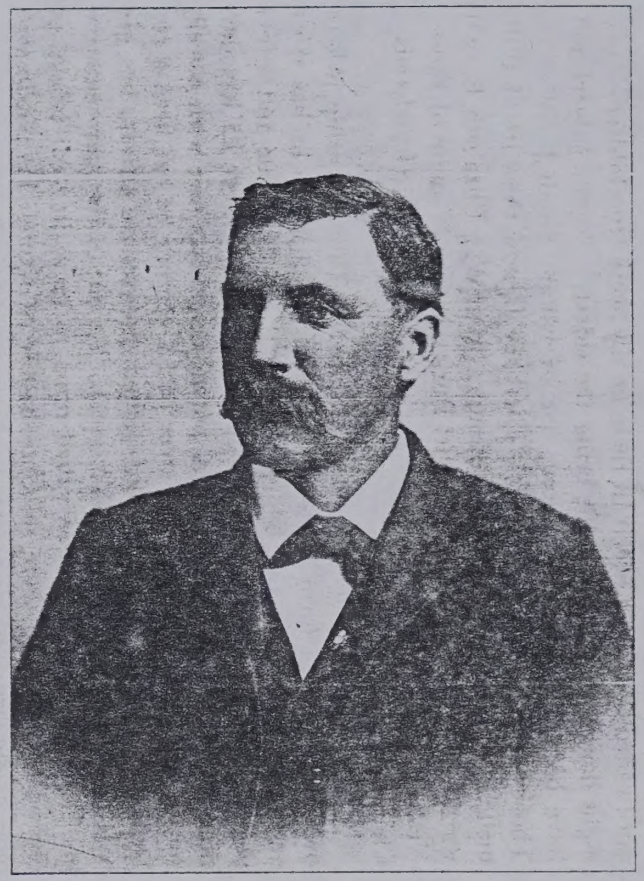
Mrs Emma Partee



Elmer T. Partee

Brethren Church.

ELMER F. PARTEE.

This well-known and highly respected farmer of Tiffin township is one of Defiance county's native sons, and is a representative of one of her most prominent and honored families, whose identification with her history dates from the earliest settlement of the county, his paternal grandfather, Enos Partee, locating here December 24, 1825. He came from Highland county, Ohio, and his was of the second white family to take up their residence in Tiffin township, with whose development and prosperity its members have since been identified.

William E. Partee, our subject's father, was born in Highland county, January 23, 1821, and was therefore only four years old when brought by his parents to Defiance county, where he grew to manhood amid pioneer scenes, aiding in the arduous task of transforming the wild land into productive and highly cultivated fields. On December 11, 1852, he was united in marriage with Miss Sarah Wissler, a native of Pickaway county, Ohio, and they began housekeeping upon a farm in Tiffin township, Defiance county, making it their home until 1882, when they removed to the city of Defiance.

There she died November 7, 1890, and he passed away February 16, 1894, honored and respected by all who knew them.

Our subject, who is the only child of this worthy couple, was born in Tiffin township, November 19, 1856, and upon the home farm passed the days of his boyhood and youth, obtaining his education in the local schools. He remained under the parental roof until he was married, in Hicksville, Defiance county, October 12, 1882, to Miss Emma Lehman. She was born in Noble township, same county, December 8, 1854, a daughter of Christian Lehman, a native of Germany, whence he came to the New World in 1830. In this country he married Catherine Bahr, who was also born in Germany, and emigrated to America in 1835. They continued residents of Defiance county until called from this life, Mrs. Lehman dying in Noble township, March 26, 1882, and her husband in Hicksville, June 30, 1891. In their family were twelve children, Mrs. Partee being tenth in the order of birth. She was a teacher, and taught school nine terms. Our subject and his wife have become the parents of two children: Verna U., born May 1, 1890, died May 10, 1890; and Elma F., born November 7, 1892.

Soon after his marriage, Mr. Partee located upon the farm in Tiffin township, where he still continues to live. It is one of the most desirable places in the community, comprising two hundred and eighty-one acres of valuable land, which he had improved and placed under excellent cultivation. His beautiful home is surrounded with good barns and outbuildings, and the neat and thrifty appearance of the place well indicates the industry, perseverance and progressive spirit of the owner. In connection with farming, Mr. Partee successfully engaged in teaching school for seven winters. For three years he held the office of township clerk, and has always taken a commendable interest in local affairs. Socially, he affiliates with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows; in religious faith, both he and his wife are active and prominent members of the Methodist Episcopal Church; in politics he gives his influence to the Populist party.

THE FALL OF VLADIVOSTOK

What a Jap in Bryan has to Say.
—A Reply by Telegram From Tokio.

Prince Royasu Kesuga, who has been in this country for the past three months, presumably for the purpose of floating an additional war loan for Japan, was in Bryan last week and talked freely on the conditions existing and emphasized his confidence in the speedy success of the Japanese in their war with Russia. He says Vladivostok is doomed and that quickly. The commanding positions now occupied by the Japanese surrounding Vladivostok only needs the addition of a heavy ordnance to make the capture complete. Last Wednesday the prince sent the following telegram to the Mikado:

"Bryan, O., June 14.—Uncle Sam is heartily in sympathy with Japan. Great country this. Wonderful business activity and big bargains. Yesterday I bought a suit of light weight clothing at Wolff's June sale for one-fourth less than the usual price. Dirt cheap.

"KASUGA."

Today the prince received the following reply:

"Tokio, June 20.—Tell Wolff's to keep the sale going until we clean out the Russian Bear, which will be about July 1., and we will send orders for all the suits he has. We have heard of Wolff's store before as the best place in the United States to buy clothing."

Edon-Bryan Ball Game
The Best of the Season.

The Bryan base ball team went down in defeat to Edon last Friday in a score of 2 to 1, and the small crowd in attendance witnessed one of the prettiest games in years. It was ladies' day, but the new bleachers did not resemble a millinery store

Great Crop Damage.

Continental, O., June 17.—The farmers are now able to realize how much damage was done by the recent hard rains. Most of the onion and potato crops on the prairie east of here, are completely ruined, and they are the main crops of that section. The amount of corn washed out is enormous. One man saw his whole cornfield rooted out and washed down Powell's creek.

A precious one from us has gone.
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in the home,
Which never can be filled.

God, in his wisdom, has recalled
The boon his love had given,
And though the body in slumber is held,
The soul is safe in heaven.

In Memorium.

Whereas, The grim reaper has again visited Evan's Post G. A. R., this time removing from the rapidly thinning ranks our kind, genial and much loved comrade, John E. Partee, whose smiling countenance we sadly realize has gone out from among us forever in answer to the "wild and weird" music of the last call of "taps,"

Therefore be it Resolved; That in his death this Post has lost one of its most faithful members, his family a kind and indulgent husband and father, and the community an exemplary citizen.

Resolved, That to the widow and children of our deceased comrade we extend our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in this hour of bereavement.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records and published in the Bryan papers.

THE FALL OF VLADIVOSTOK

What a Jap in Bryan has to Say.
—A Reply by Telegram From Tokio.

Prince Royasu Kesuga, who has been in this country for the past three months, presumably for the purpose of floating an additional war loan for Japan, was in Bryan last week and talked freely on the conditions existing and emphasized his confidence in the speedy success of the Japanese in their war with Russia. He says Vladivostok is doomed and that quickly. The commanding positions now occupied by the Japanese surrounding Vladivostok only needs the addition of a heavy ordnance to make the capture complete. Last Wednesday the prince sent the following telegram to the Mikado:

"Bryan, O., June 14.—Uncle Sam is heartily in sympathy with Japan. Great country this. Wonderful business activity and big bargains. Yesterday I bought a suit of light weight clothing at Wolff's June sale for one-fourth less than the usual price. Dirt cheap.

"KASUGA."

Today the prince received the following reply:

"Tokio, June 20.—Tell Wolff's to keep the sale going until we clean out the Russian Bear, which will be about July 1., and we will send orders for all the suits he has. We have heard of Wolff's store before as the best place in the United States to buy clothing."

Edon-Bryan Ball Game
The Best of the Season.

The Bryan base ball team went down in defeat to Edon last Friday in a score of 2 to 1, and the small crowd in attendance witnessed one of the prettiest games in years. It was ladies' day, but the new bleachers did not resemble a millinery store

Great Crop Damage.

Most of the onion and potato crops on the prairie east of here, are completely ruined, and they are the main crops of that section. The amount of corn washed out is enormous. One man saw is whole cornfield rooted out and washed down Powell's creek.

Early in life she was received into the Lutheran church and has been a life long consistent and devoted Christian, exemplifying in her quiet, gentle manner the spirit of her master whom she served. She leaves to mourn her departure, her mother in Richland county, now in her 85th year, two brothers, five sisters and six children as follows: Margaret the wife of Heny B. Thiel of Bryan, Ferguson of Terre Haute, Ind., Charles of Bryan, Gertrude, Beatrice and Helen, also of Bryan.

The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. F. B. Heibert at her late reisdence, Monday afternoon at two o'clock.

In Memorium.

Whereas, The grim reaper has again visited Evan's Post G. A. R., this time removing from the rapidly thinning ranks our kind, genial and much loved comrade, John E. Partee, whose smiling countenance we sadly realize has gone out from among us forever in answer to the "wild and weird" music of the last call of "taps,"

Therefore be it Resolved; That in his death this Post has lost one of its most faithful members, his family a kind and indulgent husband and father, and the community an exemplary citizen.

Resolved, That to the widow and children of our deceased comrade we extend our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in this hour of bereavement.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records and published in the Bryan papers.
